If your property is unoccupied and you choose to reoccupy it before the time expires on this form you need to call the Lenoir Police Department and notify them that you are doing so, because this property check would need to be removed from our system. This can be done by providing us with a password so we can verify the caller is truly you and remove the property check. If you choose to not use this feature and do call in we will be required to either send an officer to your residence or ask you to come to the Lenoir Police Department so we have verification before removing it from our system.
